

A MEMBER OF THE INDEPENDENT Waldorf SCHOOLS OF NORTH AMERICA

Great Lakes Waldorf Institute (GLWI) offers Waldorf teacher development and anthroposophical adult enrichment opportunities to cultivate the capacities in the individual that can lead to personal and cultural renewal.

Are you our next Great Lakes Board member?

GLWI Board members support the healthy growth of the Waldorf movement regionally and nationally, enrich their own lives through participating in opportunities for their personal and professional growth, and enjoy the satisfaction of doing volunteer service and making a positive contribution to the community.

GLWI Board members

- Are visionary thinkers who can see alternate futures and take joy in creating the future.
- Are able to work in a group, personally supporting the group's effectiveness.
- Contribute to the development and governing of the institute's mission and its fulfillment.
- Uphold legal and fiduciary responsibility to the organization.
- Represent GLWI positively and professionally to stakeholders and the larger community.

GLWI Board members agree

- To attend at least 9 out of 12 board meetings annually and come prepared to participate.
- To chair or serve on one or more committees.
- To contribute financially to each annual appeal.
- To develop relationships on behalf of GLWI via one's own network of friends, relatives and colleagues, and seek financial and/or other kinds of support from them when appropriate.
- To make oneself familiar with the Waldorf community regionally, including GLWI's own website at www.greatlakeswaldorf.org.

We are currently seeking GLWI Board members who bring experience and expertise in:

- Financial and business management, accounting, budgeting
- Friend and fund development, marketing

Can you help us realize our vision of GLWI?

GLWI is a vital, well-managed, influential organization that is regarded a premier center for Waldorf teacher development, anthroposophical education, and personal growth. It catalyzes positive social change, including the growth and strengthening of the Waldorf school movement.